Little Girl Instantly Killed In Windstorm

A little girl of eight years of age was instantly killed by the cyclonic windstorm which swept a path from south to north east of Chauvin.

The innocent victim, a daughter of Mr and Mrs John Murray, was struck by a barn door, which the wind was carrying away. Such was the force of the blow that the child was instantly killed.

Some twenty minutes later this same storm struck the George Tessier farm and demolished an implement shed and doing damage to the tune of several hundred dollars, but fortunately causing no loss of life.

The funeral of the little girl was conducted last Saturday, at Hayter. There were very many friends and neighbours present to pay their last respects and to express their keen sympathy.

Edgerton Fair

The Edgerton Agricultural Fair building is now located on the new grounds south of the town of Edgerton, and everything will be in readiness for the fair in August 2nd.

W. J. Blair M.P. donated to the Edgerton Agricultural Society $25.00 to the general prize funds.

Preparations for the Edgerton Fair which is to be held on Tuesday August 2nd are being carefully arranged by the directors and Secretary of the Society. Mr. Taylor, Secretary will be pleased to get entries in early.

Some congressmen have revised their tariff views.

Freads Chocolates ("Morfreads") now in stock.

Winter Rye Proves Profitable In District

Winter rye, without doubt, has fully proven its usefulness to this district. Charles W. Ryall is now cutting a splendid looking field of this grain, which promises a heavy yield.

It may be of interest to our readers to learn that this field was seeded in the first week of July of last year. This rye was pastured from the second week in August until freeze-up. At this time it had a bare appearance especially on the top of knolls. It appeared, in fact, in eminent danger of winter-killing. This spring it recovered quickly, made a good stand, and promises to thresh out a heavy yield. Charlie has received a large number of orders for this grain as seed, and much of it will be sown as soon as it leaves the threshing machine.

C. Miller seeded some of this same rye last fall. This spring he cut a crop of hay from it, and at the time of writing it is heading out in good shape.

Dragoons Go To Camp

On Sunday July 24th the 19th Alberta Dragoons of Chauvin entrained for Edmonton for a week in camp.

From early morning the boys were up and around getting their horses into town and their kit bags ready.

About 7 p.m. the bugle call summoned them to the depot where special cars awaited the 24 boys and their mounts. The train left amid much cheering from the boys and their friends.

The gardens around town are looking the pink of perfection, and the competition for the Womens Institute prize is great and it will be no easy task for the judges this year to make the awards.

Masonic Seervice At Edgerton

On Sunday afternoon July 24th a Masonic service was held at Edgerton. The service took the form of an abbreviated Anglican service and was conducted by Rev. E. H. Maddocks assisted by Rev. A.B.C. Douthwaite of Biggar, and Rev. Smith, of Edgerton.

The Chautauqua tent which had been lent for the occasion was entirely filled by the large number from town and country who attended the service.

Mrs. G. L. Hudson, of Wainwright favored the congregation with a solo. "Nearer my God to Thee".

The Edgerton Orchestra supplied the music, and the singing of the hymns was most heartily joined in by all.

Hoppers At Eye Hill

At the Council of the Rural Municipality of Eye Hill, which was held in Macklin on Tuesday, July 12th. A By-law providing for the extermination of grasshoppers and other insects was given a first and second reading.

Steps have already been taken under the same and poison bait supplied to several ratepayers whose lands have been attacked by grasshoppers.

If you had been Scotts Book Keeping System for Farmers for the past year you would not find much trouble in filling your Income Tax Return. Besides the satisfaction of knowing at the end of the year just what paid you and what resulted in loss. Start now and prepare for next year.

Hail Damage South Of Chauvin

On Wednesday afternoon last this district was visited by a hail storm. The heat during the day had been almost unbearable, but broke up early in the evening with hail, which could be heard coming some minutes before it reached us and looked very threatening, but was travelling so quickly that it did not do much damage in the immediate neighborhood.

South of Chauvin some farmers suffered more heavily. J. Semple, H. Young and J. McAskill were damaged most in this district, while reports give the information that the districts subsidiary to Edgerton also suffered some damage.

Wheat Looks Good For 20 Bushels To Acre

The fields surrounding the districts of Chauvin, Ribstone and Edgerton are for the most part looking in excellent condition. The rye in some fields is ready to cut and the wheat is standing up well on an average though on some very sandy hillocks it is poor. The conservative estimate for the wheat crop is given as about twenty bushels per acre for the district.

Wedding Bells

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday, July 13th, when Miss Anna Godin, one of Chauvin's most popular young ladies was united in marriage to Archie Irving, of Ribstone.

The wedding took place in the Rectory at 10.30 a.m.. The bride looked very charming in a suit of silver grey tricolette, and wore a cream feather cape, the gift of the groom, and a picturesque hat trimmed with salmon roses, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Olive Godin, who wore a navy blue tricolette dress with hat to match and carried a bouquet of red carnations.

Mr and Mrs Irving left by the noon train for the east, where they will spend a month visiting in New Brunswick.

SHORTHORN MEN HAD PICNIC AT ROYAL RANCH

Hon. Duncan Marshall Tells of Experiences Before Embargo
Commission

Shorthorn breeders from every part of the province were guests on Saturday at a picnic at the ranch of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. The ranch is situated some twenty-five miles south of High River and extending as it does right up into the foothills, gave its own reason for its selection by the royal owner. The natural beauty is superb.

Hon Duncan Marshall was called on to tell something of the progress of the embargo problem, and told of some of his experiences, funny and otherwise, while giving his evidence before the embargo commission in England. He had been the very first Canadian to go over and tell there, overseas the attitude of the Canadian stock. Before that Canada's problem had been backed only by some of the Scotch breeders. When he had arrived, they had said that they were glad that at least one Canadian was sufficiently interested, to go over and give local evidence.

Mr. Marshall felt sure that with the removal of the embargo against our beef and our feeders, the price of cattle would go eight or ten cents perhaps more. It was over twenty five years since he had made his first speech against this embargo which had been in existence now for twenty-nine years.

HHBACON EXPORTS FROM CANADA IN 1920 ARE LARGE

Widespread Effort is Being Made
To Increase This Trade in Present Year

The value of bacon exports from Canada during 1920 was $34,000,000. A widespread effort is being maintained by the dominion department of agriculture, in co-operation with the provincial departments, to increase this trade, and incidentally to maintain the quality of Canadian bacon which years ago procured for it a steady market in Great Britain. Aggressive foreign competition for Great Britain's requirements is making such an effort of prime importance in Canada, according to a statement appearing in the Agricultural Gazette.

The effort to increase the trade and maintain the quality of the bacon will be carried on partially through boys and girls pig clubs and through similar organizations. The Gazette notes that Great Britain annually requires 500,000,000 pounds of imported bacon.

For once in a way one can write something about something worth while and to say anything but good for the varied entertainments we had at the end of last week would be futile. Everyone had a splendid time and one and all are glad to know that we shall have a return visit next year. One cannot distinguish between the performances as everyone were of a high order. The lectures were interesting indeed, and the quality of the music was unsurpassed in its excellence. Thursdays program featured the mystery man De Jen in some fascinating sleight of hand tricks, and a splendid lecture by N. E. Bohn whose subject was "The resistless Tide" Friday we had Lieurances Ode on String Symphony with Harry Anderson as Violin Soloist. Also we were treated to a lecture by the treated to a wonderful lecture by Capt S. N. Dancey, on "John Bull and Uncle Sam" so much was this lecture enjoyed that the Gallant Captain had to give nother lecture in the evening —Saturday the closing day we had the Victorian Ladies Quartet. In the afternoon they gave us a rendering of old fashioned songs, stories, and Music which were greatly enjoyed. The old melodies sounded especially pleasing to the ear. The evening performance again included these ladies, and also Dr. Walter Jones lectured on "The Red Horizon". This being the first Chautauqua held in Artland one did hardly expect that the guaranteed amount would be raised, but by the expression of opinion heard on all sides, there will be no difficulty in raising the necessary guarantee for next year. One thing we missed and that was we did not get the support we desired from outside. Especially the Chauvin people who we had hoped would have helped us to make our first Chautauqua a bumping success however we can call it a success, and are sure of its becoming highly popular for the 1922 season. In an interview with Miss Fullerton (the Chautauqua Agent) the writer was informed that everything had been done that could be done by the people of this district. In fact said Miss Fullerton "The community spirit in this district is the most wonderful I have met with in my travels, and it is the only district who took it entirely upon themselves to renew the contract for next season." A compliment indeed.

of lighter wire, and the barbs are not so close together.

In all lines and at all times there will be differences of prices (unless there is an ironclad control) because goods purchased at different periods are frequently bought at varying prices of the market. (Last year and this year this factor is particularly active). Then in September last came the raise in freight rates (tho doubtless your comparison is intended to refer to an earlier period). On top of all these considerations, we must mention that there are times when merchants who find themselves carrying a large stock of certain lines and at the esame time needing more capital quickly will sell at a reduced and at the same time needing more of business, but will give rise to some doubts in the minds of the puchasers.

We appreciate your kind remarks about our merchants, who will always endeavour to maintain such a reputation

LITTLE ADVTS—BIG RESULTS

Letters To The Editor

Oxville, July 18th 1921

Chauvin Chronicle

Chauvin.

Mr. Editor,

We consider that your arguments in reply to our former letter are decidedly weak, unfair and absolutely incorrect. Therefore we think it our duty to give the matter more light, if you will kindly allow us the valuable space. Now in the first place your quotations are not current as you state. Allow me to point out that those catalogs were printed last winter time and prices since then have decreased, in some lines considerably. The mail order houses informed its customers long ago of this fact and made it known that should orders be received for goods advertised in their general catalogs, they would refund the amount over current prices. Regarding credit business by the local merchants we ewish to say that we have taken advantage ourselves and have appreciated it. On the other hand we done ewhat we considered right by taking all our ready cash to the local stores even when we knew that we were paying from 10 to 23 cents or more on the dollar than we needed to pay elsewhere. There is room for severe criticism, we thing, re the credit system used by some of the local stores. We have noticed that we are quoted the same price when we pay cash as the man who runs a big credit account. That is, we consider absolutely unfair, and is in itself a strong inducement for people to patronize the mail order houses.

Twelve months ago, wire in Chauvin, cost just one dollar per spool moree than it did in Lloydminster. I could quote other goods of different variety with the difference in price more or less. Now, Mr Editor, if a man wanted to buy enough wire to fence a section of land, you are not going to convince him, or even a man with half an eye and a pin's head amount of grey matter that he is doing the right thing by paying a dollar more per spool than it is necessary to pay.

We are not saying that the local merchants are profiteering. There may be sound reasons for these large spread in prices, but we consider that a little light on the subject in the columns of the local paper is far better than grumbling on street corners and elsewhere.

We wish to say in conclusion that we have no prejudice whatever against the merchants of this town. We have always found Chauvin a pleasant place to do business in and all considered compares very favorably to any other town we have done business in. At the same time we still maintain that the large spread in prices on some goods compared with prices elsewhere does at least at least appear unreasonable.

I thank you for your generosity in allowing this space, Mr. Editor
Your's etc.

G. SILK

George Silk, Esq.

Oxville, Alberta

Dear Sir

In reply to your letter permit me to protest that my reply was "absolutely incorrect". We submit that the public in general will be able to decide between us. We will point out to you, that we gave names of mail order houses, quoted their specifications and their prices—all of which may be verified by those who take the trouble. Until the Fall and winter catalogues reach us, we must regard the spring and summer issue as current. Sale catalogues only include certain lines sold at certain prices for a certain period, and therefore do not form equitable basis for comparison, excepting against other sales. Had you favored us with corrections to our quotations, the object of this debate would have been more fully served.

Your remarks re the same price for credit as for cash trading is not applicable to present conditions. There are no big credit accounts for current trading.

Referring to your mention of wire prices as at one year ago. You do not specify which particular kind of wire, nor the price, and presumably your term 'twelve months ago' is an approximation. We will therefor ry (as you suggest) to put a little light on the question. We will make reference to four point barb wire, presuming this is the kind of wire to the which you refer. There are many grades in this wire. To day, in order to prepare our answer, we interogated one of our local merchants, who stated that he was to-day prepared to sell berbed wire at prices from $3.00 to $6.00 per spool—variance being in numebr of points and grade of wire supplied. Among the better makes of barbed wire put on the market, there are three of outstanding merit. Lymans four point galvanized wire is generally conceded by users and the trade to be the best —this was selling at $6.75 per spool in Chauvin last fall, and is now quoted at Chauvin at $6.00 per spool. The next in order of value are those of the manufacture of Baker, and also of Glidden. These can be retailed rather lower than that manufactured by Lyman, and at the same time are

Road Work In Saskatchewan

Road work totalling about 200 miles and costing at least $200,000, is now in course of construction, or about to be commenced, in Saskatchewan as part of the federal aid scheme. Some of th work is being done under contracts awarded by the Saskatchewan de- partments of highways, while other sections are being constructed by de- partmental day labor gangs.

Homestead Entries

During the six months ended June 30th last, 394 homestead and 125 soldier grant entries were recorded in the Dominion land office for the Win- nipeg district. These involved nearly 100,000 acres. In May, homestead en- tries in territory served by C.N.R. lines in Alberta numbered 334 and in British Columbia 182, covering about 30,000 acres.

Soldier Settlers

Soldier seetlbers in the prairie prov- inces of Western Canada have put 500,000 acres of new land under cul- tivation this year. Settlers of this class have taken up nearly five mil- lion acres of land in Canada and are making good.

Canadian Stock Is Healthiest in World

The last report of the veterinary di- rector general for Canada shows that live stock in the Dominion is so re- markably free from disease that it is easy to believe that Canada is the healthiest country in the world for all classes of live stock. No country can claim to be absolutely free from ail- ments in its cattle, horses, sheep and swine any more than it can thaht every human being is health perfect. But, Canada, it is safe to assert, comes nearer to the ideal state than any other land. None of the ep- zootic diseases that cause most anx- iety to sanitary officials, such as foot and mouth diseases, cattle plague, and contagious pleuro-pneumonia, are found within our borders. Diseases that do exist to a very limited ex- tent, such as glanders, hog cholera, and cattle mange, the report shohws, are being kept well undeer control and are diminishing year by year.

Edgerton Fair Tuesday August 2nd

In 1916 Canada was only thirteenth among the maratime nations. Since then she has risen to the eighth place with nearly 9,000 vessels. A marked feature of recent years has been the creation of a government mercantile fleet of 63 vessels, nearly all com- pleted and carrying on trode with every part of the world. This fleet operates in connection with the Can- adian National Railways.

It's easy to withstand temptation that invites us to do something that we do not care to do.

Chauvin Chronicle

IT COSTS MORE TO PRODUCE

Consistently for Seven Long Years, the Chauvin Chronicle has earnestly striven to give the best possible service to its readers.

Starting in 1914 with the smallest plant possible, it has steadily developed. Why?

Because during the whole seven years it always gave more service than its revenue paid for. Can this be kept up indefinitely?

No!

We must have more subscribers
We must have more contributors
Then we can keep the paper going

Here let us remind the various U. F. A. locals that our columns have always been open for notices and reports of their meetings. We have to thank Lealholme for a regular news supply of notes, some other for occasional notes, and still others who do not furnish any notes. This is not fair to the local press, nor to the interest of these organizations

We need correspondents from every district. We have neither money or time to enjoy the pleasure of driving around all the week, much as we would like to.
